Will our friends, when they decide they can't take the BANNER longer, come up and pay arrears?

Mr. J. S. Walsingham of Anderson, has our thanks for substantial favors, brought up by J. L. Vickers.

Don't Neglect Your Liver.

Liver troubles quickly result in serious complications, and the man who neglects his liver has little regard for health. A bottle of Brown's Iron Bitters taken now and then will keep the liver in perfect order. If the disease has developed, Brown's Iron Bitters will cure it permanently. Strength and vitality will always follow its use. Brown's Iron Bitters is sold by all dealers.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Mobley of Vernon, came in Saturday to be present at the Gainer-Ball wedding.

Charlie Mobley of Vernon, came in Saturday afternoon to attend the Gainer-Ball wedding, Sunday.

Mr. D. D. Pickering and family, of Indiana, came in Thursday and are the guest of Mr. A. G. Chandler.

Ladies

I AM AT HOME!

Have charge of the order department at BEE HIVE. Write me for samples of Dress Goods, Silks, Satins, Lace Curtains, Carpets, etc. All orders will have prompt attention.

J. S. R. CROSSMAN,
Order Department "Bee Hive," Columbus, Ga.

Two papers put back this week, five more subscriptions, three of which added Atlanta Journal and Times-Union and Citizen.

Mr. S. A. Cook is putting lumber on the ground for a new two-story house to be used in connection with the store he now occupies.

Mr. J. W. Kimble of Cypress, sawyer for J. M. Criglar, was here this week to visit relatives. Of course he remembered the BANNER.

The BANNER acknowledges receipt of a large package of assorted garden seed from the old reliable house of D. M. Ferry & Son, Detroit, Mich.

All cotton goods have advanced during the past 30 days; we hit it right by buying early. The same old prices hold good at Campbell & Butler's.

Capt. L. M. Ware of St. Andrews, came in Saturday and was the guest of Mr. L. Wiseloge. He returned home Monday, going by way of Vernon.

The small amount of $1.25 will get the BANNER and Semi-weekly Atlanta Journal for one year. Don't delay, but give us your subscription now.

Mr. W. A. Maxwell has accepted a position with M. L. Dekle at Marianna. Mr. Maxwell is a pleasant gentleman, and we regret to lose him from our town.

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS!

We will take corn, meal, potatoes, meat, lard, sugar, cotton seed or almost any old thing on subscription, especially on those old chronic cases.

Mr. J. W. Newton will soon complete his new building just east of Tharp's store, where he will handle all kinds of fresh meats and vegetables, and will also carry a nice stock of confectioneries.

Senator Pasco and Congressman Sparks have our thanks for valuable documents. They are alive to the wants of our people, as is evidenced by the appropriations secured for Florida. Send Pasco back and all will be well.

All parties who have lost chickens had better call and examine the gang at the house of T. D. White; he is raising a gang for some one, and if not removed soon they may get a new brand put on them. The times are hard, meat scarce and old man White must eat.

MR. EDITOR.

Why don't the enterprising merchants of Chipley, and the citizens generally take some steps to have the streets on the outskirts of town put in passable condition. They are perfectly awful in some places.

FARMER.

FOR SALE!

All the household goods of Mr. C. Ruckelshaus, consisting of dining room set, beds, chairs, sofas, and other such property; will be sold at private sale; goods on exhibition at Mr. Geo. W. Johnson's and will be sold there.

ILLUSTRATED LECTURE.

Mrs. Green, of Colorado, National Chalk Talker of the W. C. T. U., will entertain the friends of temperance and the public generally on Tuesday and Wednesday, 14th and 15th, at the Methodist church at 7:30 p. m. Be sure to bring the children as knowledge can be imparted to them more effectively through pictures than any other way. No admittance will be charged, but a collection will be taken which will be used for the temperance cause.

Mrs. R. A. FOSTER.

MARRIAGE.

GAINER-BALL.

Last Sunday morning at 10 o'clock, the marriage of Mr. Langley Gainer to Miss Josie Ball was solemnized. Rev. R. A. Foster, officiating, at the home of the bride's father and mother, in the presence of a host of friends of the bride and groom.

Miss Josie was one of Chipley's attractive young ladies, and we congratulate Mr. Gainer on his success in winning her heart and hand.

The BANNER joins the many friends of the happy young couple in wishing for them a smooth pathway in life's journey and much prosperity.

AT WAUSAU.

BORN. On Feb. 4th, to Mr. and Mrs. Lay, a fine 11-pound boy; they have christened him 'Dewey Lay.' Both mother and youngster are doing well.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Williams were here Monday, the guest of Maj. J. B. Glen.

A few oats are being planted, but the weather is so bad farmers can't do much.

VERNON DOTS.

Our people are very much elated over even the small appropriation of $2,000 for the cleaning up of Holmes river, and hope for an increased appropriation next year.

One day last week the large bay steamer 'Vernon' reached the dock here without any damage, and shortly afterward the little steamer 'Todie Clark' arrived, giving us two steamers loaded with merchandise in one day. Each took cargo of country produce and naval stores.

Mr. T. E. Gainer, of Econfina, was with us Saturday, claiming important business with the County Judge. We could not tell if it was for himself or another that the license was purchased.

Mr. A. Q. Jones is having the sidewalk in front of his town property put in neat condition. There are others we hope to see follow his example.

Mr. Eddie Brock is still suffering with inflammatory rheumatism; yet we trust he will be able to be out again soon.

Messrs. T. J. Mobley and W. B. Lassiter visited Chipley Saturday.

The drummers still continue to come and find our merchants in good spirits.

New and profitable enterprises are discussed daily and we expect some of them to materialize at an early date.

Messrs. Brock Bros. & Co. received their new turpentine wagons by steamer Vernon and are making quite a headway in their turpentine business.

The farmers are buying very little commercial fertilizer this season, and will grow considerably less cotton this year than last.

The health of the community is unusually good at present.

County Commissioners met Monday and quite a number of minor matters discussed with.

Mr. G. A. Danley, Sheriff Allen, attorneys Carmichael and Wells were with us Monday. Mr. Wells stopping over on business a few days.

Quite a cold snap reached us Wednesday, killing young garden peas and cabbage plants.

A Sunday school was organized and quite a number attended Sunday. Mr. J. D. Parish is Superintendent.

Mr. Morris had the little pond on the public square ditched Wednesday, and we look for others to follow his example by putting our streets and sidewalks in passable condition in front of their property.

A FLORIDA MAN MAKES A GREAT DISCOVERY.

Rev. W. A. Bryan, of Washington, Co., Fla., has by close observation, study and hard work, discovered the most wonderful healing remedy on earth, for all kinds of sores, itching humors, fire burns, sores on horses and cattle, and all inflammation of the flesh of man or beast.

"THE GREAT HEALER"

has been going as an evangel of mercy for three years, having cured thousands of cases which attest its unequalled healing power.

Bro. Bryan offers the benefit of his great discovery to suffering man, at reasonable prices. Agents wanted in every place on earth. Write me.
